FRANK FULTZ IS PRESIDENT OF INSTITUTE

Officers Are Elected At Farm Business Meeting Today

MRS. POW, SECRETARY, BEGINS 15TH TERM

Business Bureau to Conduct Final Program This Evening

Frank W. Fultz of Willow Grove, Pa., was elected president of the Salem Farmers Institute for the ensuing year when officers were named this morning at a business session of the 15th annual event now under way at the Memorial building.

Fultz, a nurseryman, succeeds L. Vincent of Salem, who was elected president last year. S. D. Bailey of Mt. Nebo was elected vice president, and Mrs. Elizabeth Pow of Goshen was named secretary-treasurer for her 15th term.

Large Crowds Attend While close to 350 persons were present for the opening session of the institute Wednesday morning, practically all of the 600 chairs in the Memorial building auditorium were taken last night by persons who enjoyed the evening program. Attendance at the afternoon session was slightly higher than that of the morning.

A specialty on last night's program was Griffin's Accordion Gypsies from Delroy. According to speakers, Mrs. W. S. Ferguson and Rev. R. Wobus, Perry grange was in charge of the program, with its lecturer, Mrs. Alberta Huffman, presiding.

This morning's program also included talks by the two guest speakers and the showing of a soil erosion film by Floyd Lower, Columbiana county agricultural extension agent.

The Mt. Nebo grange lecturer, Mrs. H. V. Zimmerman, served as chairman.

Music Planned Tonight Salem grange was to have charge of this afternoon's program, while tonight's session, at 8, will be held at the High school auditorium.

The subject, "The Beauty of Simplicity in Living," The other institute speaker, Rev. Wobus, told of the "Danger of Superficial Living." This morning he discussed the topic, "The Magic of Give and Take." Mrs. Ferguson discussed "Money, Facts and the Market Basket."

The institute will present its annual play at 8 p. m. Saturday in the High school auditorium. The production is entitled, "Spring Fever," and is directed by Mrs. Irene Matthews.

COUNTY REVERSED IN SUPREME COURT

COLUMBUS, Jan. 22.—The Ohio supreme court yesterday reversed Columbiana county courts and ruled that sharing of gas and oil for an automobile when all the parties are on a social trip does not relieve the guests from operation of the "guest statute" which bars recovery of damages.

As a result, Mrs. Helen E. Duncan is barred from collecting damages from Ralph Hutchinson, in whose car she and several other persons were riding from East Liverpool to Steubenville when the machine was wrecked.

She had been awarded $3,000 damages by the county courts on the ground she was to share part of the expense of the trip, although no payment had been made.

Jap Sneak Attack Offset As Bombers Speed to Southwest

High Government Officials Reveal Hawaii, Pacific Coast Formidably Fortified; Steady Stream of Reinforcements Moving

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—A high government official reported today that since the Pearl Harbor attack the army had been able to fortify Hawaii and the Pacific coast more formidably than ever before, while starting a stream of reinforcements to the southwest Pacific.

(What constituted this stream, in terms of men and material, was not disclosed.)

Within the United States more than 600,000 troops have been shifted to new positions in less than seven weeks with a speed and efficiency which the official said had been termed "miraculous" by a railroad president.

First Advantage Offset The advantage Japan gained over the navy by the December 7 surprise attack was declared to have been largely offset by the mounting flow of American long range bombers.

Omitting details which might convey damaging information to the enemy, the official gave this picture of the urgent military measures taken since war started:

Japan's treacherous raid on Hawaii was against the key position of the defense of the entire American Pacific coast, and the first reports, which, fortunately, were exaggerated, made it appear that the west coast had been stripped of its protection.

In the emergency preparations of the last 18 months, heavy reliance was placed on the fleet and its Hawaii base, and Pacific coast defenses had lagged somewhat for the benefit of more exposed positions.

Army Fills Breach Into the threatened breach the army sped almost the entire force of bombers available in the United States.

Fortunately production had mounted to such a degree that fighter planes as well were ready. The task entailed also, however, creation of extensive anti-aircraft and other defenses.

Rapid movements of men and weapons were possible because emergency storage yards, other railway facilities and ports of embarkation had been prepared in the last year and a half.

The efficiency demonstrated applies to movements of forces outside the country as well. The southwest Pacific emergency was not unforeseen, as it was in the cards for years, since the United States tried unsuccessfully to stabilize the Pacific with the first naval base.

Scoutmasters will be honored when the Columbiana County Boy Scout council holds its annual dinner meeting at 6:30 tonight in the American Legion home in Lisbon.

During the recognition services, each scoutmaster will be presented a book as a token of appreciation of the time and effort spent with their troops.

Principal speaker will be W. H. Hisey, in charge of the Akron area council, who will speak on the subject, "Strong For America."

An Eagle Scout award is to be bestowed upon Benny Kupka of Salem by K. U. Wirtz, chairman of the local scout board of review. Commendation award will be given to non-Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp will make the presentation of the Silver Beaver award to a selected scout leader in the county in honor of outstanding service to boyhood.

Members of the program committee are Stanley T. Hilbert of East Liverpool, K. U. Wirtz, G. C. Rauch, Russell Gibbs, S. J. Adams, Fred Gibson, M. H. King and Francis Johnson.

County Election Costs Are Placed At $19,048

Electors in 1941 and early 1942 will cost Columbiana county $19,048.98 in deductions from tax settlements, Clerk Frank R. O'Hanlon of the county election board said today.

Completing figures on apportionment of the expenses, he certified to County Auditor Ross Tisher and the head of each sub-division the amount that will be subtracted from taxes.

The Aug. 12 primary cost eight cities and villages $5,268.49, while the general election Nov. 4 will mean deductions of $2,287.66 for 12 cities and villages, $2,712.04 for 18 townships and $3,625.57 for 26 school districts, O'Hanlon said.

Two submissions of a two-million county operating levy meant an outlay of $3,670.73—$212.75 Nov. 4, when the only cost was for ballots, and $3,457.98 Jan. 6 for all expenses in the special election in 114 precincts.

East Liverpool Teachers Enlist In Naval Reserves

EAST LIVERPOOL.—East Liverpool High school is losing two faculty members to the naval reserves. Gus Zarnas, 28, assistant football coach and former Ohio State guard, and Howard Lindell, 31, a teacher who formerly coached basketball, have enlisted. They will report Feb. 9.

SINGAPORE'S FORCES LASH BACK AT JAPS

Jungle Troops Take Initiative In Full-Scale Counter-Drive

HURRICANE FIGHT PLANES ARRIVING

Japanese Renew Heavy Attacks On MacArthur's Luzon Defense

(By Associated Press) British jungle troops, seizing the initiative for the first time in the Malayan campaign, were reported smashing at Japan's main invasion armies in a full-scale counter-offensive 70 miles north of Singapore today while reinforcements of 350-mile-an-hour Hurricane fighters swung into action over Singapore itself.

The newly-arrived Hurricanes, single seaters with the greatest fire-power punch of any plane of its type, are equipped either with 12 machine guns or four light cannon machine guns.

Even before the arrival of the heavily-armed Hurricanes was officially announced, a resurgence in aerial activity of the defenders was evident.

Five raiding Japanese planes were shot down and a sixth was damaged over Singapore today and British fliers claimed a heavy toll of invasion transport columns behind the lines.

Spearheads of the Japanese were drawn into battle about 70 miles above Singapore in a counter-offensive launched yesterday behind a curtain of artillery fire.

With British Australian and Indian troops engaged around to smash the main Japanese mass, British fliers blasted at Japanese transport lines north of Parti Bu-long both yesterday and today, destroying and damaging many vehicles in each case and machine-gunning the survivors of the bombings.

Renew Assault on Patan Washington, Jan. 22.—The Japanese have renewed their heavy attacks on General Douglas MacArthur's line on Bataan peninsula in the Philippines, the war department announced today, with Japanese forces on the island of Luzon estimated to total roughly 200,000 men.

Enemy reinforcements are being landed, said a department communique, in Lingayen gulf and Subic Bay.

Gordon Takes Job With Navy As Aid In Tunney Program

Frank (Toughie) Gordon, assistant football coach at Salem High school, has been chosen by Lieutenant Commander Gene Tunney, head of the U. S. Navy's physical training program, to serve the Navy as a supervisor of physical education and recreation.

Gordon, who is 28, was one of 50 men selected by the former heavyweight champion from a roster of about 250 applicants interviewed when Tunney was in Cleveland the first part of this week. "Toughie" clinched the job yesterday at Cleveland when he passed a rigid physical examination.

Supt. of Schools E. S. Kerr announced that Gordon had been granted an indefinite leave of absence. "He'll be missed here at the High school," he said.

Gordon came to Salem in 1937 following his graduation from Western College at Springfield, his home town. He accepted a teaching position at the Junior High school, and took charge of physical education there.

Rationing of Electricity Looms, Say Power Officials

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Congress received from government power officials today a blunt warning that the nation faces a rationing of electricity—possibly this year—that may even dim private homes to conserve power for the defense program.

That possibility was voiced by Leland Olds, chairman of the federal power commission, and G. O. Wessenaer, acting power manager for the Tennessee Valley Authority, in testimony during house appropriations committee hearings on the independent offices supply bill approved today.

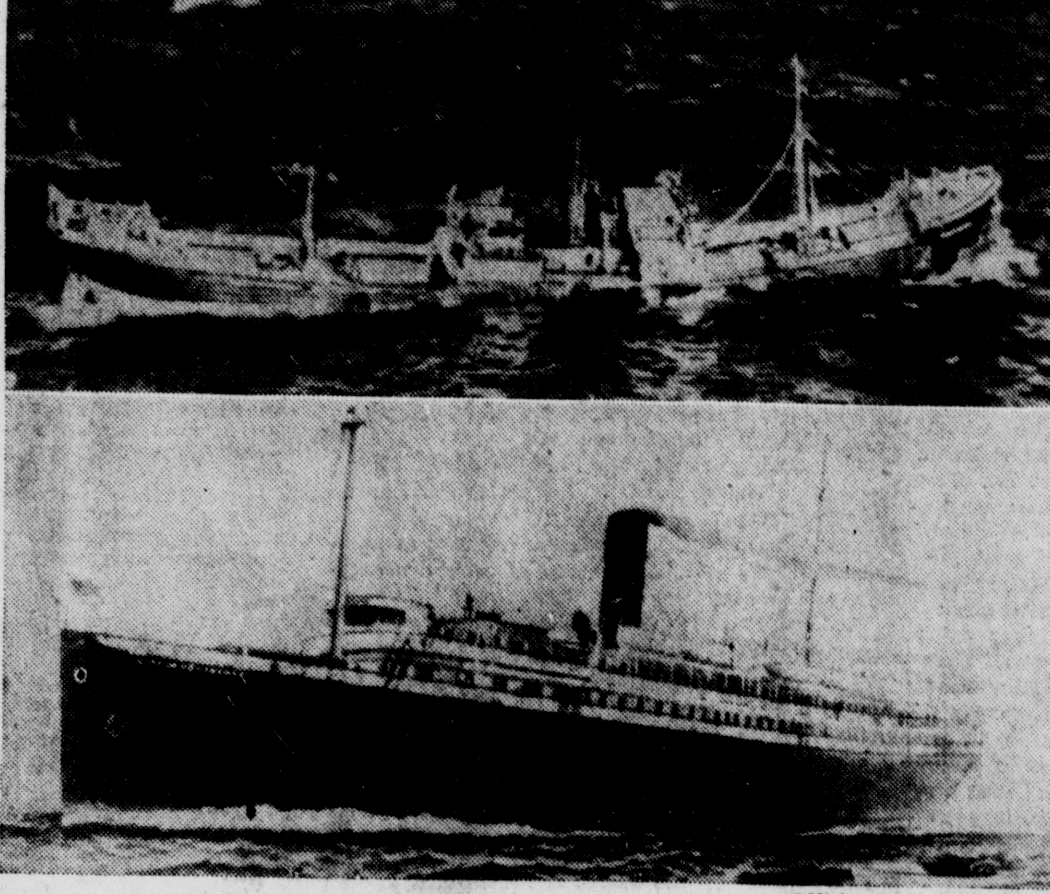

The rationing of electricity for homes, offices, night clubs and other civilian purposes, Olds told the committee, "is going to be necessary and is going to be done," and a survey is being made "to determine just what loads can be cut off without materially interfering with the normal life of the community."

Olds said he believed the emergency would call for power rationing in many regions "by the end of this year."

It may mean "a great deal more than simply the elimination of neon signs, ornamental street lighting, the use of the radio in homes, or other essentially luxury uses," he added.

The more serious shortages of power naturally will occur in the heaviest defense production areas, Olds explained, and the population of those areas may face a serious reduction of their normal activities requiring the use of electricity.

The Latvian steamer Ciltvaira is pictured above "somewhere off the Atlantic coast" after she had been torpedoed by a submarine and abandoned by her crew in a sinking condition. Below, is the sister ship of the City of Atlanta which was torpedoed and sunk off Cape Hatteras, N. C., with 46 of her crew dead and missing.

RUSSIAN PUSH CROWDS NAZIS

Reds Slash at Rear Guard Of Fleeing Germans Near Mozhaisk

(By Associated Press) Russian troops slashed at the rear guard of Adolf Hitler's retreating German armies seven miles west of Mozhaisk today, while in London, Air Minister Sir Archibald Sinclair declared that the British army now was organizing "the greatest possible striking force for offensive operations on the European continent."

Sinclair gave no indication whether a British counter-invasion was imminent. London newspapers and other critics for weeks have been clamoring for action, and British officials have frequently mentioned the restiveness of the 2,000,000 army regulars and 2,000,000 more guards long held in readiness to combat any attack on the island kingdom itself.

Meet First Setback On the North African front, British troops who had swept more than 300 miles across the Libyan desert in pursuit of Gen. Erwin Rommel's armies met their first setback in the two-months-old counter-offensive.

Cairo headquarters acknowledged that three strong Axis columns made a 10-mile "reconnaissance in force" into British positions yesterday below Mersa Brega, a coastal town on the Gulf of Sirte, about halfway between Agadabia and El Agheila.

Agadabia is 70 miles northeast of El Agheila. "Our light forces, which had been harassing the enemy since his retirement from Agadabia, withdrew, maintaining contact with the enemy throughout the day and inflicting casualties upon him," British headquarters said.

The German high command's version asserted that Axis armored columns drove the British back in a surprise attack and declared that the British were fleeing toward Agadabia.

Premier Mussolini's high command said Axis planes supporting the land operations "repeatedly and intensively attacked retreating troops, concentrations of armored

RED CROSS DRIVE LAGGING, REPORT

Red Cross chapter officials today renewed their appeal to Salem and Salem district citizens to contribute to the $10,000 local quota which the national organization asks as part of its 50 million dollar American quota.

Chapter officials, in a frank report on the progress of the campaign to date, asserted that it is not meeting with the response expected.

Volunteer workers are being asked to redouble their efforts, make more contacts and extend their appeals so that the goal may be reached within the period set—this week.

E. S. Dawson, chairman, points out that "The enviable reputation which our community has for responding generously to worthy causes will gain new laurels if everyone who has not been solicited will make his contribution to representatives of the Red Cross at either the First National bank or the Farmers bank. To exceed our quota will show conclusively that Salem is fully conscious of its responsibilities in our country's time of crisis."

PLANT OPERATORS TO PLAN DEFENSE

Co-ordination of Efforts Goal of Meeting Here Friday Evening

Representatives of all manufacturing concerns within the jurisdiction of the North County Civilian Defense council are expected to attend a dinner meeting at 6:30 p. m. Friday in the Memorial building, at which the Manufacturers' Association of Salem will be host.

The chief executive and the men who handle the defense problems of each plant have been invited to the meeting, over which President George Loxier of the Salem association will preside. The purpose is to outline in detail the complete program of the Civilian Defense council and to co-ordinate the work of all manufacturing plants in the north county area.

Manufacturers from Lisbon, Leetonia, Columbiana and East Palestine will be present. Included in the group to outline their program will be Russell Barrow of Columbiana, county chairman of the industrial protection committee, and James H. Wilson, chairman of this committee for Salem.

The Girls' Athletic association will hold a party in the High school gymnasium after the close of school Friday. Miss Sarah Hanna is advisor of the group.

NEW SERVICE SPURS OUTPUT

Nelson Will Set Up Field Branch, Decentralizing War Effort

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Washington awoke today to the realization that Donald M. Nelson is giving the war production job back to the whole country.

Nelson's announcement that he intended to establish a field service as a seventh and new major division of the war production board which he heads was regarded here as a step toward decentralizing the war effort.

Officials said such a move, sending WPB men into the industrial centers of the country where the battle of the assembly lines is being fought, would shortcut a great part of the delays caused by paper work, letter-writing and the necessity of calling manufacturers to Washington to discuss production and conversion problems.

Will Have Authority Nelson said he had not yet decided "how much responsibility will be here and how much out in the field." However, the high place accorded the proposed field service in his organization scheme was taken as clear indication that he intended to delegate to it a good share of the decision-making power heretofore reserved for Washington alone.

The field division will compare in importance, Nelson said, with the six major divisions of WPB set up by him yesterday, when he abolished the Office of Production Management—production, purchases, materials, labor, civilian supply and industrial organization.

The field offices will handle not only the job of bringing small plants all over the country into the military arsenal, but will advise contractors on priorities, allocations of material "or anything else that pertains to getting the job done," Nelson told newsmen yesterday.

Nelson's theory of decentralizing control is getting its first big test in Detroit, where Ernest Kanzler, veteran automobile production man, is in charge of the new field office.

Their daughter, Helen, who was driving at the time, escaped unhurt. Mrs. Huber received a fractured left wrist and face cuts. Mr. Huber received a broken nose.

Dr. Asher Miller, 82, of Greensburg, driver of the other car, suffered from shock. The Hubers were enroute to Harrisburg, Pa., at the time of the accident.

Sales Tax Is Off COLUMBUS, Jan. 22.—Sales tax revenues for the first full week of this year fell almost $70,000 under those for the corresponding week of 1941, State Treasurer Don H. Ebright today announced.

The sharpest decline was in motor vehicles where the drop was from $189,997 to $128,588. All classifications except apparel and chain stores showed declines.

WAR FLOTILLA SIGHTED OFF NEW BRITAIN

Communication with Isle, In Bismarck Group, is Broken Off

AUSTRALIA PROPER IS 800 MILES AWAY

New Britain Isle Seen As Probable "Jumping" Off Spot

(By Associated Press) MELBOURNE, Australia, Jan. 22.—Rabaul, capital of New Britain, reported today that 11 ships, including warships, had been sighted off neighboring Watom island, and immediately following this report communications with Rabaul ceased. It was presumed here that New Britain island had been evacuated by military forces in anticipation of a prospective Japanese landing. The last word from Rabaul came at 4 p. m. (1 a. m. E. S. T.).

First Invasion Seen If the implications of the Rabaul message are fulfilled the Japanese are in the process of their first invasion of Australian territory. The island of New Britain, of which Rabaul is capital, is mandated to Australia and is an important segment of the Bismarck archipelago.

New Britain lies east of British New Guinea and is 800 miles northeast of the nearest point of Australia proper, that is, Cape York peninsula. Rabaul is 1,880 nautical miles from Sydney, on the southeast coast of the sub-continent.

Before Rabaul flashed the report of the approaching fleet, Japanese planes raided the city, a continuation of assaults on the island around New Guinea.

Acting Prime Minister Francis M. Forde said Rabaul had undergone two air attacks today and that Japanese aircraft also had raided the Solomon Islands, southeast of New Britain.

The Japanese flotilla was sighted 30 to 40 miles off Watom island, which is 15 miles northwest of Rabaul, about half an hour before the Rabaul radio sent its last message.

"Scorched Earth" Policy Seen It was assumed here that the radio and telegraph stations had been demolished by British forces before evacuation in pursuance of a scorched earth policy.

(An Australian broadcast reeling WPB men into the industrial centers of the country where the battle of the assembly lines is being fought, would shortcut a great part of the delays caused by paper work, letter-writing and the necessity of calling manufacturers to Washington to discuss production and conversion problems.)

Acting Prime Minister Forde and Air Minister Arthur Drakeford warned Australians that a full-scale military attack may be imminent, aimed at establishing bases from which the Japanese could direct an offensive against the Australian mainland.

Drakeford, saying that "we must prepare ourselves for any eventuality," predicted earlier in the day that the Japanese landing attempt might be made today, and said it was obvious the enemy forces in the Bismarck Archipelago included more than one aircraft carrier supported by other naval units and land-based planes.

Friday in the Nurses home on E. State st. Miss Marie Farnett of Youngstown, district chairman, will be a speaker.

RAILS GIVEN O. K. ON RAISE IN FARES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The nation's railroads held official authority today to raise passenger fares 10 per cent to meet increased wages and operating costs.

The interstate commerce commission, acting upon urgent pleas of the carriers, granted the increase which, it is estimated, would yield an extra $45,000,000 on the basis of last year's revenues.

The fares probably will become effective between Feb. 1 and Feb. 4. Application for a jump in freight rates by the same percentage still is pending before the ICC.

The passenger fare increase applies to all except the 14 cents a mile rate for service men on furlough, and on extra fare trains.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

It is no secret—certainly not among the statesmen—that the course of events at Rio de Janeiro, where the United States is hoping to accomplish hemispheric solidarity against the Axis, would be a whale of a lot smoother if it hadn't been for the incident at Pearl Harbor. When Latin America is told these days that it can depend on its powerful "good neighbor" for protection against interference from abroad, it is likely to demand proof.

Submarine attacks on shipping off the Atlantic coast have been timed nicely to make an impression on the American foreign ministers meeting at Rio. This is Germany's contribution to Axis pressure on the Americas. Japan's contribution, made previously, started with the successful attack on the naval base of Pearl Harbor and ended, for the time-being, with submarine raids on shipping off the Pacific coast.

If this were the right season for military flying it could be depended on that the United States would have a taste of aerial bombardment. Aerial attack is not impossible even in bad weather. Nothing would be more nicely calculated to make the ministers at Rio wonder how a nation so badly prepared to defend itself, (an deliver on a promise to protect their nations, too). The United States is potentially the greatest military power of them all, but it cannot expect to sell great expectations at a premium. The Axis powers are capable of inflicting great damage now—not in 1943, but now. The United States still must ask its actual and potential allies to take its performance as a belligerent on faith.

PHILOSOPHIC FIRST LADY

Mrs. Roosevelt's reminder to her countrymen that hoards can't win is really a short lecture on an issue in person 1 philosophy. It is eat, drink and be merry vs. string saving. Or it is a choice between taking one's chances with the crowd, or living aloof. Or it is a question of whether to follow the example of the squirrel, who stores up food in advance, or the example of the sparrow, who counts on being able to find it as he goes along. But most of all it is a question of practical social behavior.

There is no practical way known to evade the consequences of being alive at a given time. The mobility could not escape the black death. The frugal could not insulate themselves against the boom. The profitists could not eliminate aggression by refusing to believe in it. And the inhabitants of a country at war cannot expect to be free of the annoyances of dislocations of all kinds, that being one of the prime purposes of war.

WAITING FOR THE SUNRISE

There will be a great stir the night of Feb. 8. Most of the talk will be on the subject of going to bed early, because the next morning the United States will be on daylight saving time. At 2 a. m., officially, the clocks will be advanced one hour.

Some of the conversation on Feb. 8, no doubt, will concern the question of whether to turn the household clock ahead now or later, and this is a suggestion. The time to make the switch to daylight saving is shortly after Sunday dinner, when everybody is inclined to feel woozy. It will be least painful that way. They'll never know what hit them. By the time they've stumbled through the Sunday paper looking for the radio column to find out what has happened to their favorite Sunday evening comedian they'll be so confused it will be a relief to go to bed an hour early—and if the subject could be dropped from then on it might never occur to them that they were seeing more sunrises than they ever saw before.

But of course the subject won't be dropped. There will be more hushed expectancy and right and left-handed hula-balo the night of Feb. 8 than any time since the night of Dec. 24.

MORAL FROM MALAYA

There has been no hint of improvisation in descriptions of Japan's advance on Singapore through Malaya. Everything has been done with the same thoroughness and efficiency that have characterized Germany's offensive movements in the war. There seemingly was a plan for every problem. The campaign had been worked out in detail, studied, revised, kept up to date and finally put into action as efficiently as the attack on Pearl Harbor, or the Philippines.

In a word, Japan knew what it wanted and prepared to take it. It did what Germany did in the blitzkrieg of 1940 when supposedly invulnerable defenses were penetrated in a few days—made a science of offensive action. While it may turn out that Germany and Japan both erred in not making more of a science of defensive action, the secret of their success in the war has been the success of their dynamic offensives when opposed to nothing but static defenses.

If there had been any doubt left, the advance on the supposedly unassailable output of Singapore confirms the impression that the anti-Axis bloc cannot win the war until it is able to oppose the dynamism of the aggressors with a greater dynamism of its own.

THE STARS SAY:

For Friday, January 23

AN INTERESTING and lively, possibly eventful day is forecast from a chain of unusual or conflicting planetary aspects. There is sign of strange, perplexing and contradictory situations to be manipulated to success and satisfaction by good judgment, rationalizing, and finesse rather than emotional or high-tensioned behavior. Business as well as professional, social and domestic relations are under fluctuating influences and need wise understanding and care. With this there is prospect of a favorable conclusion to all problems.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year in which a great deal depends on their own reasonable, restrained, poised and sagacious management of affairs that may be unlooked for, unusual, even peculiar and challenging. Curious or surprising events may upset the equilibrium when stability, cleverness and sound tactics would result in moderate benefits. Personal as well as business, social, domestic, cultural and sentimental culminations are dependent on prudence and wise counsel. Use these in moments of peril or sorrow.

A child born on this day should have conflicting traits of character, with much depth and stability as well as many emotional excitements and proclivities. Its affairs may fluctuate, but in the end may be secure.

NEW HEMISPHERE PLAN LOOMS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The anti-Axis diplomatic front achieved among the American republics in conference at Rio de Janeiro may prove in the long run to be a bigger thing than the World War which brought it about. For we have here the beginnings of what might easily develop into a permanent politico-economic solidarity of all the states of the western hemisphere.

It is hard to believe that the American republics ever will abandon their new-found solidarity, once they have inaugurated the vast war production plan of the United States for the western hemisphere.

That plan strikes much deeper than the war, since it provides for such far-reaching changes as abolition of all trade barriers, the establishment of a common currency among all anti-Axis nations and the inauguration of great international harbor, canal and highway projects.

This gesture of the United States, by which she flings all her resources into the defense of the entire hemisphere, cannot but help dispel any suspicions which might still linger in other American republics that we harbor selfish intentions as regards our neighbors. In the past there has been an unwillingness on the part of some South American states to enhance our power in the southern continent.

Then there has been the heavy clash of trade interests, as in the case of the Argentine which, like the United States, has wheat, corn and meat surpluses. However, the sweeping reorganization of western hemisphere trade, which is proposed, should go far towards remedying the situation.

DO COLD BACKS CAUSE DREAMS?

Clendening Tells of Interesting Letter

BY LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.
ONE OF MY correspondents sends me the following letter which I reproduce on account of the interesting material about the subject of terrifying dreams.

"Have you time to turn a professional eye on a theory concerning terrifying dreams: that they

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

are all (or nearly all) caused by the exposure of the sleeper's back to cold? My data on the subject are fairly copious, covering the observations of more than forty-five years, but they are purely personal.

Naturally, therefore, the view I advance is tentative—a kind of working hypothesis.

Cold Draft on Back
My attention was first drawn to the matter in the winter of 1896, when I was a student of medicine at the University of Toronto. I need not describe the imagery of the dream of extreme terror which aroused my curiosity at that time.

When I awoke, I found that a January northwester was blowing in through the open window and striking me in the upper part of the back, from which the bedclothes had slipped. It was fully an hour before (by lying on my back) I succeeded in overcoming the feeling of cold and fear. In the intervening years I have experienced scores of nightmares almost invariably due to similar conditions. The only exceptions I can think of are nightmares caused by difficulty in breathing, quite rare in my case.

"Some eight or nine years ago I looked up the literature of pavor nocturnus. I thought it very poor stuff for the most part, like the early guesses concerning the etiology of malaria and yellow fever. I have reason to believe that no marked advance has been made recently in the scientific study of night fears.

"Could my theory be put to the test in one or more college dormitories? It would be easy, I should think, for a research student to direct a stream of cold air or spray along the spines (especially over the upper dorsal vertebrae) of his sleeping fellow collegians and to take note of the reactions.

"If it could be proved that night fears are caused by peripheral stimuli, a number of important deductions would follow concerning the nature of the emotions in general, the interrelation of fear and anger, the means and prevention and the treatment of pavor nocturnus. Above all, we should then have substantial reasons for changing the attitude of parents toward their affliction. I feel sorry for this and that young mother (steeped in ignorance and superstition) roused from slumber in the cold, dark hours by her shrieking offspring.

I am glad to publish this letter in order to bring the subject up for discussion and also to emphasize what is said—that terrifying dreams do not harm the health and that while mothers may feel apprehensive about them, and even superstitious, there is no real reason for this, and the harm the dream does is what you make it.

It would seem natural to suppose that the activities of the day condition the mental activities of the night, or perhaps to put it in a larger sense, the activities of a lifetime condition our mental activities in sleep. But that is very difficult to prove, and also very difficult to correct on that basis. I think it is possible that peripheral stimuli might have much more to do with causing dreams than long-dead experiences.

It is always comforting to me to remember that we only probably dream in the last five or ten minutes before we awaken.

The flag will be blessed and formally unfurled in the sanctuary of the church, after which the plaque, bearing the names of all of the young men of the parish who are now enrolled in the armed forces of their country, will be dedicated. New names will be added as each parishioner is called to the service.

Rev. Father Alfred Heinrich, pastor, will speak on the "Catholic Attitude Toward War" and the five-point peace program of Pope Pius XII.

The Holy Name society will be assisted in the ceremony by a color guard from the American Legion, John Welsh post, No. 275, under the leadership of Commander Homer Browne.

bay, and the entire Japanese 14th army under Lieutenant General Masaharu Homma with a number of other units, is now on Luzon.

Hostile air activity in Luzon during the last 24 hours was light, the department said, but 17 enemy bombers attacked the city of Cebu, on the island of the same name, about half way between Luzon and Mindanao, last Sunday.

Military officials here said a Japanese army contained eight to ten divisions of approximately 15,000 men each, with attached and supporting units not organized in divisions.

This would make General Homma's force, with one entire army and other troops on the island of Luzon, total probably about 700,000. This estimate did not include Japanese forces on other islands of Philippine group, including a large invading force at Davao on the southern island of Mindanao.

Gordon Takes Job With Navy As Aid In Tunney Program

A year ago Gordon was assigned to the high school as first assistant to Ray Overturf, new football mentor. The team that Overturf and Gordon put on the field last season proved to be one of the scrappiest seen at Reilly stadium in recent years.

In studies, Gordon has been teaching science. His place, for the time being, will be taken by a substitute. Vacancies also exist following the enlistment in the Army Air Corps technical school a week ago of James Campbell and Clyde Thomas.

Gordon will conclude his teaching duties here tomorrow to leave for an early induction into Uncle Sam's fighting Navy.

Lieutenant Commander Tunney warned the host of applicants in Cleveland naval recruiting station the other day before selections were

PUSH COMPROMISE ON PRICE CONTROL

Three-Way Effort Under Way to Break Up Legislative Log Jam

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—A three-way compromise was pressed by senators today in an effort to break the legislative log-jam on wartime price controls.

The compromise admittedly involved some concessions by the house, by the senate, and by President Roosevelt as the joint congressional committee trying to adjust conflicting interests resumed closed sessions.

Senators walked out of the joint conference yesterday explaining that they hoped the five house con-feres would agree among themselves on the compromise proposal.

Willing to Drop Controversy
Members of the senate delegation said they would be willing to drop the controversial attempt to tie farm prices to urban wage levels, as provided in an amendment sponsored by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) which the senate approved 55 to 30.

They asked the house conferees to accept senate provisions for licensing of business, a single price administrator, and granting the government broad powers to buy and sell commodities as a factor for controlling their prices.

President Roosevelt was expected to withdraw his outspoken objection to giving Secretary of Agriculture Wickard a virtual veto power over any farm price ceilings fixed by Leon Henderson, acting price administrator.

Although the chief executive asked for a "single responsible administrator," senators pointed out that the President could end promptly any dispute between two appointed subordinates.

Both Senator Brown (D-Mich),
chairman of the senate conferees, and Senate Majority Leader Barkley (D-Ky.) were reported backing this provision written into the senate bill under sponsorship of Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) and the White House was expected to go along.

Both house and senate conferees were reported in agreement on the farm price provisions. These would bar any price controls until farm products rose above average farm prices on October 1 or December 15 of last year, average prices during the period 1919-20, or 110 per cent of parity prices computed by the agriculture department, whichever was highest.

Senators estimated that these restrictions would permit a general rise of about 10 per cent for agricultural commodities before controls could apply.

After the conference committee reaches an agreement, its report must go back to the senate and house for final approval, with protests expected on some of the compromises.

units, anti-aircraft batteries, depots and troop concentrations.

Both Sides Claim Gains

A bulletin from Hitler's field headquarters, contrasting with the gloomy tenor of recent communications, reported that the fucher's Crimean armies had beaten off Russian attempts to break the encirclement of Sevastopol, Black sea naval base, and that repeated Soviet attempts to break out of Leningrad had been "frustrated."

Russian dispatches from the southwestern front—a term which might refer either to the Crimea or the Ukraine—reported that Soviet cavalry and artillery had crushed a series of violent German counter-attacks.

A Red army bulletin said 1,400

Germans were killed in heavy fighting in the south, and the Leningrad radio reported 700 Nazis slain in action around the old-time czarist capital in the north.

The battle cry of the troops of Lieut. Gen. Leonid Gorovov, the conqueror of Moshaisk, was: "the road to victory lies ahead." Russian artillery pounded the German rear guard. The long road to Smolensk was reported crowded with fleeing troops.

A heavy British aerial offensive against Axis bases in the Mediterranean basin was reported by the London air ministry—attacks apparently designed to circumvent a thrust against Malta or strengthening of German-Italian forces engaged in the second battle of Libya.

Wave after wave of Wellington bombers blasted at the Catania airdrome of Sicily in a 10-hour raid Tuesday night and pilots said they started fires which were visible 40 miles away.

British bombers raided targets in Germany again last night.

Hire Extra Firemen

WELLSVILLE, Jan. 22.—Personnel of the Wellsville volunteer fire passage of an ordinance.

val disarmament conference and the accompanying nine-power treaty.

The army and navy recognized that if Japan failed to observe these commitments, the United States would be placed at a heavy disadvantage by geography and a limited fleet, and the Japanese soon started first to encroach on and then deliberately to violate the treaties.

Bombers Increasing

Though Japan gained an enormous advantage by surprise on December 7, this already has been offset partially by American production of long range bombers which is on the increase and is destined to mount to great proportions.

As the Pacific crisis grew, a substantial force of heavy bombers was sent to the Philippines, beginning last summer, and although many have been put out of commission, those still in action have been restoring somewhat the balance upset by the loss of warships at Pearl Harbor.

In addition, the United States and the other nations involved in the Pacific struggle meanwhile have been laying broad foundations for united action, in Washington, Chungking, Moscow, Singapore and elsewhere. The importance of the unified command which has been achieved largely by the efforts of President Roosevelt can hardly be overstated.

Such unity came only after four years of blundering in the first World war.

FARMERS TO BOOST SOYBEAN PLANTING

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, Jan. 22.—Ohio farmers indicate a willingness to increase production of soybeans about 55 per cent to meet or better the state's quota, Elmer P. Kruse, Ohio A. A. chairman, asserted today.

"Ohio farmers plant in soybeans 50 per cent of the land cleared by reduced wheat feedings, we have no trouble reaching our goal," Kruse said. "Every contact we have had with the farmers indicates a willingness to cooperate."

"We anticipate some difficulty in meeting our allotted tomato and pea acreage, but we are not worried about the other crops."

Commercial corn producers will receive a 10 per cent increase in their 1942 allotments announced last fall, Kruse said. The previous allotments were approximately the same as in 1941.

Levy Is Held Invalid

EAST PALESTINE, Jan. 22.—The 1½-mill relief levy, considered as passed at last Nov. 4 election, actually failed to receive the 65 per cent majority vote required by law, city council has been informed.

Eighteen destroyers and 13 submarines were launched by the Navy during 1941.

YOUNG AND BENDER SEEK RE-ELECTION

COLUMBUS, Jan. 22.—Ohio's two congressmen-at-large, Stephen M. Young (D) and George H. Bender (R) both of Cleveland, will seek re-election.

Young some time ago announced he would do so, and Bender today obtained petitions for his candidacy from the secretary of state.

This year Ohio will elect only one congressman-at-large instead of two, the state having lost one representative by the apportionment under the 1940 census.

Earl C. Reed of Ashville, a teacher in Columbus West High School, obtained nominating petitions to become a Democratic candidate for the nomination of state senator.

Takes New Position

LISBON, Jan. 22.—Miss Alma Williams of Clarkson quit her job as secretary to Relief Director John Orr today to accept a position in the Aid To Dependent Children office in the courthouse.

Ex-Congressman Dies

TROY, Jan. 22.—Walter H. Albaugh, 51, former Republican congressman and state representative from 1921 to 1924, died yesterday. He was elected to a short term in congress in 1938.

WEST PLAINS, Mo.—The severe freezes during January are feared to have ruined the 1942 peach crop in some sections of this fruit growing area. Below zero temperatures are not believed to have hurt other fruit crops and growers hope the peach damage will not extend over the entire area.

STATE, CIO CLASH ON WOMEN'S HOURS

Observance of 45-Hr. Limit
In Emergency Period
Is Issue

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, Jan. 22.—The Ohio department of industrial relations and the state CIO council squared off today for a show-down on whether the state should permit more than the 45 hours a week legal limit.

George A. Strain, industrial relations director who said he had issued 62 temporary permits to industries facing emergency need of disregarding the 45-hour limit, called a meeting here next Thursday to air the question.

Ted F. Silvey, Ohio CIO secretary-treasurer, said in a bulletin to council members and officials that he "vigorously protested" to Strain against relaxation of the law. Silvey urged local unions to attend the Jan. 29 meeting.

Silvey's bulletin declared that Strain "is willing not only to blink at violations of the law, but has lent himself actively to set aside a law he has sworn to enforce."

Soldiers Not On Eight Hours
Strain countered that his department had "adopted a policy of co-operation in the war which is the duty of every individual" and that "the soldiers and marines in the Philippines are not working under an eight-hour law."

"This was an emergency which had to be met," he added. Although Silvey contended that "there are plenty of unemployed people available," Strain said most available labor was unskilled and could not be used without extended training to keep war industry production lines on schedule.

Strain said that although he had issued 62 temporary permits to Ohio industries, he had refused to grant almost as many and that those given would not be renewed unless the industries affected had taken steps to meet the emergency by securing or training labor to meet their needs.

Strain on Dec. 19 sent to Gov. John W. Bricker a letter announcing his intention of issuing the temporary permits and declaring: "Since congress declared war there has been a tremendous increase in production to enable industry to execute the provisions of defense contracts and meet the demands of the federal government."

Receives Many Requests
The director said his department was receiving hundreds of requests to extend the female hour provisions.

"Realizing that I do not have the authority to change the laws, it is necessary to give considerable study to the problem," he added. "Believing that our laws represent the will of the majority of the people and knowing that the people of Ohio stand solidly behind the national defense problems of our commander-in-chief, I have adopted a policy which I hope will meet the situation and which will not permit the collapse or destruction of our high standards affecting industry and labor."

Silvey's bulletin declared that "while organized labor is contributing enthusiastically and effectively to the war program, a certain group of manufacturers is using the secretary to destroy existing labor legislation."

His objections to the temporary permits included: Fatigue of workers would cause individual production to drop; increased accident hazards through fatigue; and that unemployed women were looking for jobs.

Silvey added that "we are vigorously for the defense and the war production program, but that so long as there are competent available unemployed, it is not necessary to exhaust those who are on production."

Confer On Housing

CLEVELAND, Jan. 22.—A three-day regional conference of the National Association of Housing Officials, sponsored by the Office of Emergency Management, opens today in Toledo, with post-war housing, management and maintenance to be discussed.

Steal Mine Machinery

STEUBENVILLE, Jan. 22.—Thieves apparently used a fleet of trucks to carry away strip-mining machinery valued at $5,000 from the property of the Haverhill Coal Co. at nearby East Springfield, Sheriff Robert Bates reported.

BENNINGTON, Mich.—Robert Hudson wanted his breakfast egg just so. He went to the henhouse and selected his own. He boiled it three minutes. Then he tried to crack it. The egg exploded and left Hudson's hand bleeding. It was the china decoy egg.

$200,000 FIRE HITS CINCINNATI HOTEL

CINCINNATI, Jan. 22.—Crews cleared debris from the five lower floors of the palatial Netherland Plaza hotel today following a small fire in a motor room.

Actual structural damage to the 26-story building yesterday was small. Fire Chief Barney Houston said. However, water from fire hose poured down richly carpeted stairways and seeped into a banquet hall and restaurant.

Manager Max Schulman estimated the damage at $200,000, mainly to costly furnishings. Nevertheless, the hotel advertised "business as usual" today.

is being sent with a staff to achieve the total conversion of the motor industry to arms production. Kanzler will have only a deputy in Washington.

"Production isn't done back here—it is done there in Detroit," Nelson explained.

Saves Traveling

"If there are other industries that have a location in a certain place, I see no reason why the branch chief shouldn't go right out to the place where he can do it the quickest without having to bring men back and forth to Washington and argue about the thing."

There will be a counterpart of Kanzler in every important industry, Nelson said, and he estimated their number at 50 or 60.

Not all the industry chieftains will have as much power as Nelson vested in Kanzler—"all the authority that I've got"—because not all of them will need it, Nelson said. Kanzler is authorized to move tools and machines from one motor company to another, if necessary to get maximum arm output.

William S. Knudsen and Sidney Hillman, erstwhile co-directors of the now defunct OPM, will continue to play important though separate roles.

Nelson said he wanted them added to the new war production board.

Knudsen, now waiting for senate approval of his appointment as the army's director of production with the rank of lieutenant general, will expedite production for the army, working with William H. Harrison, head of the WPB production division. A similar production director will be appointed for the navy.

Extension Service Reaches Many Farms

Approximately two-thirds of the farm families in Columbiana county were directly reached by some phase of the program of work of the agricultural extension service, according to the annual report just filed by the county commissioners by County Agent Floyd Lower.

The report covers the work of Erma Ramseyer, home demonstration agent; John Strausbaugh, assistant extension agent, and Mr. Lower. A total of 1,508 farm and home visits were made by the agents during the year; 1,207 meetings were held in connection with extension work, with a total attendance of 35,427. Evenings devoted to extension work by the three agents totaled 57 per cent of the days worked.

The report shows that 72 corn hybrids and 45 sources of seed potatoes were compared in test plots. A total of 380 samples of soil were tested on 60 farms. In the last six years 1,157 acres have been reforested, 196 being planted in 1941; 75 carloads of apples were purchased by the Federal Surplus Commodities corporation.

Testing of cattle for Bang's disease has progressed to the point where approximately 20 per cent of the herds and nearly 50 per cent of the cattle in the county have now been voluntarily tested; 210 herds, comprising 3,569 cattle, were tested during the year, with 100 reactors.

A demonstration farm was established in each township to demonstrate the value of the recommendations of the County Land Use Planning committee. Contour strip cropping was planned on 26 farms by Lower and Strausbaugh. A home furnishings survey of 557 homes was made by 108 farm women serving on township rural planning committees.

A total of 938 different boys and girls were enrolled in 4-H club work in 64 organized clubs. Marjorie Ferguson of Fairfield township and Marvin Coffee of Butler township won national recognition by being awarded trips to the National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago. Miss Ramseyer conducted 15 demonstration meetings on vegetable cooking, 27 demonstration meetings on kitchen improvement and two demonstration meetings on home furnishings. Many other phases of work were included in the report.

Plans Made for National Semi-Pro Baseball Event

CHICAGO—The national semi pro baseball congress, encouraged by President Roosevelt's "Go" signal for 1942 baseball, will award a championship trophy commensurate with the big year that it expects.

Ray Dumont, president of the congress, says the national title tournament trophy will be eight feet high and weigh 50 pounds. The congress also announced dates for organized sandlot play this year, including the March 29 nationwide registration day for an estimated 500,000 persons desiring to play baseball in connection with the civilian defense health program.

Other dates:
May 3—Official opening of the semi pro season.
June 27-July 6—District tournaments to qualify teams for state meets.
July 7-Aug. 1—The period for the 48 state tournaments to qualify representatives for the national meet.
Aug. 14-28—National tournament at Wichita, Kan.
To encourage organization of more leagues, the congress voted to award each champion a trophy and to place team players under a nationwide contract system.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN—IT'S ONLY A PENNY?

In my business, I know what a penny can mean—and when I stop to think how much a penny for electricity does—how much you can buy for so few cents—I know what it means to the family "bookkeeper"—the housewife.

Bargain Day for Electricity

While prices of some things have gone up, that's not true of electricity. Cheap electricity is still your best bargain. Do you know, for example, that five pennies worth of electricity will do the weekly cleaning of rugs and carpets in the average size home? Use your electrical service to save in many ways.

Salem Courtmen Encounter Rangy Rayen Crew Here Tomorrow

FAST BREAK, ZONE DEFENSE FEATURED BY YOUNGSTOWN

North Siders Winners in Seven of Eight Games This Season

Salem High's fighting Quakers return to the home hardwood tomorrow night to tangle with a rangy Youngstown Rayen crew which has scored seven victories in eight games to date. Coach Joe Horn's starting lineup usually consists of Steve Mackos and Posey at the forwards, one of the Wilcox brothers at center and Dykes and Colucci at the guard posts.

Feature Fast Break
His offense features a fast break with every member of the team getting points. Mackos, a 5 foot 10 inch lad, has been well up in the scoring column with his totals reaching double figures several times. His supreme effort was a 20 point spurge against the weak Niles Red Dragons. He is a fair defensive man and is an important cog in Coach Horn's potent zone defense.

Posey, at the other forward, is a lad of a mere 5 feet 3 inches. Because of his height he is a valuable man under the bucket and gets a lot of his points on rebound or tip-in shots.

At the center post are the Wilcox brothers, Paul and Junior Paul, the oldest, is graduating with the mid-year class at Haven High. Thus Coach Horn has been grooming his youngster, brother to fill his shoes. Junior Wilcox has started the last few Rayen games and Horn is pleased with his work, both offensively and defensively. Although he is a six footer, his brother towers over him standing 6 feet, 4 inches.

Colucci, Dead Long Shot
At the guards are Colucci and Dykes. Colucci is a southpaw and is rated a dead long shot while Dykes is generally regarded as the best rain on ice floor. He, too, is a long shot artist.

Coach Horn has able replacements in De George and Jones, who usually substitute at the forwards. De George is the smallest man on the squad, as he stands only 5 feet, 6 inches. Jones is an older boy who tops the six foot mark. Like Colucci, De George is left handed.

The Rayenites use a fast break extensively but will fire a last shot if they are given the slightest opening. They depend on their height to control the backboards and once more the Quakers will be the smaller team on the floor.

The North Siders' lone defeat came at the hands of Fritz Nagey and Co. of Akron South High school by a 37-29 count. The elder Wilcox starred in that battle with 14 points but was greatly overshadowed by the scoring prowess of Nagey, who averages slightly over 20 points a game.

Both Defeated Niles
The Salemites and Youngstowners have met one common opponent in Niles. The locals disposed of Niles by a 41-32 count after running up an 18-point lead in the third period. The Rayen cagers dropped the Red Dragons by a 44-24 margin. Mackos scored 20 to pace the Rayenites in that contest.

In the preliminaries, the Salem Freshmen will meet the Leetonia reserves and the Salem reserves will face the Rayen second stringers. The Rayen subs, like the varsity, are a rangy lot, but are not rated so strongly. They have no true set offense except to get the ball and fire it for the hoop. They use both a zone and man to man defense, depending upon the situation at hand.

Sticks to Big 5
Coach Herb Brown will undoubtedly stick to his lineup of Ray McGaffick and Bob Scullion at the forwards, Sam Pridon at center and Salvatore Guappone and Johnny Volio at the guards. These boys have played some consistent ball but will probably give Rayen a stiff battle. Brown has announced that Phil Cozad's leg, broken during football season, is rounding into excellent shape and that he will be ready to play shortly.

The Quakers will make their second attempt for their eighth win of the campaign as will the Rayenites.

Varsity game time is scheduled for 8:45.

Chilean Champ To Run

NEW YORK—Guillermo Huidobro of Chile, the South American 600 and 1,500 meter champion, is on his way to the United States for the indoor track season. Secretary Dan Ferris of the AAU disclosed today.

The crack mile distance runner will compete in the Millrose AA meet at Madison Square Garden Feb. 7 and the Boston AA meet in the Boston Garden Feb. 15.

BOWLING RESULTS

The Citizens Ice Keglers pulled out in front a little farther in the Pastime league standings as they scored a shutout over the Strop Club while the second place Albright's dropped one to Loudon's on the Grate alleys.

M. Miller of the Strop Club fired a mighty 233 his first game and wound up with a 591 series. Jim Armstrong hit a 218 for Albright's also in his first game.

The third place Jackson's retained their slot as they trimmed Hunt's three straight. Art Shinn's 195 was high game for the match. The Salem Label five kept right behind the leaders as they posted a forfeit win over the Elks. Ted Detwiler rolled a 214 his opening game.

In other matches, Bloomberg's corped a pair from Sponseller's and the Eagles took the same number from the Gold Bar. Wes Davis and Keith Harris rolled a 203 and 200, respectively, for the Bicemberg outfit.

The Ohio Edison five, pace-setter in the Masonic Ladies league, lost a game yesterday but kept riding high at the top of the standings as they took two from Kresges' on the Masonic alleys. The second place Salem News benefited from this loss as they scored a shutout over Brownies. They still trail seven games behind the loop leader, however.

In other matches rolled last evening Stark's strengthened their fourth place position in the race by trimming the Mullins Keglers three in a row and Wark's took a pair from the Bankerettes.

War Will Increase Grid Activities—SMU Coach

DALLAS—Matty Bell, president of the National Football Coaches' association, predicts the war will increase rather than retard college football activities.

"Those who feared the game would be curtailed can look forward to even more emphasis because the army and navy believe football valuable in training fighting men," the Southern Methodist university coach said.

He expects colleges to go out of their way to schedule games with service teams.

LOUIS PRaised AS GREATEST FIGHTER AT ANNUAL DINNER

Gene Tunney, Retired Champ, Lauds Bomber As Best In History

By SID FEDER.
NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A fellow who would be inclined to look lightly upon the stunt of an army bomber making a three-point landing on the tower of the Empire State building pointed to Joe Louis today as probably the greatest fighter who ever lived.

This overcautious individual is none other than our old pal Gene Joseph Tunney, who retired undefeated as Heavyweight champion, who took a long count in Chicago one night that they said gave him all the best of it, and who looked on the dynamite of Dempsey without blinking an eye.

The occasion for his sudden discovery of Louis as a pretty fair country bank-buster, after seven years of varying degrees of pool-pooping the Brown Bomber, came last night at the annual dinner of the Boxing Writers' Association of New York. At this clamor, Louis received not only the Edward J. Neil memorial plaque as the man who did the most for boxing in 1941, but also the ring magazine merit award as the fighter of the year.

Tunney Receives Award
What is more remarkable about Gene Joseph's song of praise was that Gene Joseph himself was among the reward receivers. He got a special trophy from the boxing writers for his services as head man of the navy's fistie follies collection.

"I saw Joe beat Buddy Baer down in less than a round a week ago last Friday," explained Tunney, who has been more or less snickering at the Bomber ever since he came down the pike back in '35. "It was the greatest exhibition of human destruction I have ever seen."

"Joe is probably the greatest and most complete workman the ring has ever seen. The only other fighter in all fight history who might have done his job as well was Bob Fitzsimmons, and I never saw him. I'm going only by what they tell me."

Louis Well Pleased
Gene Joseph passed on his delayed pat on the back in the presence of such ear-scrambling operators as Jack Dempsey and Jim Braddock, but it's doubtful if Louis got more of a kick out of Tunney's speech than he did out of the wire from Lieut. Col. Howard Brenner of Camp Upton, where Louis is stationed. This wire, voicing the colonel's regrets for being among the missing, also pointed out that Joe is "developing into as fine a soldier as he was a boxer and a gentleman."

"Well," said Joe, "I always thought I'd never feel as good again as the night I won the heavyweight championship. But tonight tops 'em all. I've never felt this good."

Hoppe Wins, Gains First Place As Chamaco Loses
CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Willie Hoppe, the man whose name has been synonymous with billiards for more than 40 years, ran up a 27-0 lead last night before his opponent could score and moved closer to another world three-cushion title—his third in a row.

The 53-year-old Hoppe stunned Jake Schaefer and spectators alike as he won, 50 to 23.

The victory was good for the undisputed tourney lead when Joe Chamaco of Mexico City bowed to Welker Cochran, 50 to 35 in 39 innings. Chamaco, however, has a chance to tie up the lead again tonight when he will oppose Hoppe.

The tourney ends tomorrow night.

Four Sophs Brighten Wooster Cage Hopes

Four sophomores are important cogs in the new basketball machine which Coach E. M. Hole, son of Willis Hole of Salem, has built at the College of Wooster this season as the Scots race along with the Ohio Conference leaders. Two of the boys are regular starters while the other pair are important replacements.

To support the three lettermen back from last year's squad, Coach Hole has been starting Dale Hudson, a former star of Marion Harding high, and Gerry Katherman, graduate of Columbus North, at the forward posts. Together with the three veterans, Sapt. Karl Kate, Rich Sproul and Harry Eicher, they form a formidable aggregation.

The other two boys, Dennis Kuhn of Trenton, N. J., and Roger Stoneburner, son of Prof. W. E. Stoneburner, head of Wooster's education department, are being used as replacements. Stoneburner, a 190-pound end on the Wooster grid team last fall, is a guard.

When the season opened, Wooster's prospects for another banner year did not appear too bright but the quartet of sophomores plus the three men back from last year's five have given Coach Hole another strong team at Wooster College.

The Scots will tangle with the Mount Union Purple Raiders at Memorial Hall in Alliance, February 18.

Miami and Dayton fought each other to a standstill at Oxford last night—Miami dropping in a two-points in the last four seconds to win, 33 to 32. Bib Kavanaugh, Dayton forward, heaved a desperation shot which caromed off the edge of the basket as the gun sounded.

Tonight's games: Ohio Northern, at Ashland, DeSales at Calvin, Cincinnati at Michigan State and Findlay at Defiance.

SPORT CHATTER

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(World Wide).—Jack Dempsey shouldn't have much trouble with his new duties as aide de camp to Major General William Otman of the New York State guard. Jack has had plenty of experience as aide de flight camp—which required him to keep from laughing while he said so-and-so had a good chance against Joe Louis. Baseball men are wondering if they will be able to get back to the seven-game limit for night games after they boost it to 14 as a war measure. Ex-Mayor Jimmy Walker presented the Eddie Neil memorial trophy to Joe Louis at the boxing writers' dinner last night, but it might have been more appropriate if he had delegated the job to Quent Reynolds, who followed Eddie's footsteps from sports to war reporting.

Today's Guest Star
Bob Gebbie, Watertown (S. D.) Public Opinion: "If your congressman do nothing else, by passing the daylight saving time bill they have earned the votes of sleep-loving nimrods. Because duck shooting starts at sunrise, hunters will get an extra hour's sleep next fall."

Service Department
One of Bob Feller's first acts after reporting at the Norfolk naval training station was to join Chief Gary Bodie's basketball squad for a workout. He's not a candidate for the team. Private Pete Seso of Fort Knox, Ky., former assistant golf pro at West Orange, N. J., says his great ambition is to caddy for Sam Snead. Pete says he would cure Snead of blowing up and would "sweat him in."

Dempsey Refuses Navy's Invitation For Present

MUSKOGEE, Okla.—Jack Dempsey, replying to an invitation to come to Muskogee and join the navy, said today that he was not in position to accept at present. He intimated he might act on the suggestion later.

Navy Recruiting Officer A. I. Husted wired the invitation after the former heavyweight champ was rejected by the army because of his age.

The reply said: "I am not in position to accept at present, due to the fact that I am waiting to hear from Washington. However, I will advise you accordingly, after I know something definite."

ALUMINUM SAVED makes 275 planes possible
As America's air power grows, more and more aluminum is needed for the production of planes. Enough aluminum is being saved in a year by the Bell System so that the aviation industry can build 275 fighter planes with this saving. To do this, Bell System scientists and manufacturing experts have developed practical substitutes. Without affecting the high standard of telephone service in Ohio and the nation, other metals are being used in making telephone equipment to release aluminum for the nation's war needs.

"THURSDAY'S CHILD" by VERA BROWN

FROM THE OLD RHYME: "THURSDAY'S CHILD HAS FAR TO GO"

SYNOPSIS

Leslie (Sonny) Richardson, a vivacious, 18-year-old redhead, is maid-of-all work in her foster father's roadside lunchroom on the outskirts of Monroe, Michigan. Life to her was just work and arguments with Richardson. She never had any fun. Then, one day, Tom Hollister and Jamie Hicks, two young college students, drive up in an expensive trailer. Tom is attracted to Sonny and asks her to go dancing. When she tells him she doesn't know how to dance, he drops a coin in the phonograph and proceeds to teach her. Just then Richardson appears on the scene and orders the boys out.

CHAPTER THREE

Sonny bent over the sink, but she had to clutch the edge of it to keep from falling, her knees trembled so. The silence in the lunchroom was so heavy it hurt. In terror Sonny waited. Fortunately for her, another car was stopping. It gave her a respite.

"Get through there as quick as you can and go to your room," Richardson said, as he went out to the filling station.

Then and there Sonny made a decision. She was going to run away. This was the end. If she starved, she starved.

It must have been fifteen minutes later that the telephone rang. She answered, her mind eager with her plans. She would be free at last, forever. It was Tom Hollister. His voice as contrite: "I'm so sorry. I hope the old watch dog isn't there. Who is he?"

"My father."

Tom was embarrassed, tried to apologize.

"Don't! I hate him."

"Nonplussed, Tom could think of no adequate reply. But he had a sudden desire to outsmart the tyrant."

"How long before you're through?" he asked, impulsively.

"In about fifteen minutes."

"Can't you sneak out and meet us? We'll go dancing and pay the old boy off. We've parked the trailer in a camp down the road. I'm calling from there."

Sonny was thinking rapidly. She had no money. She had to have help. It was here for the asking.

"I might," she answered.

"Good! We'll wait down the road for you in the car."

Sonny's voice was suddenly strong. "Just back of the next farm house, the one with the big porch," she said.

"Okay!" said Tom.

She turned away from the telephone. Maybe she could get a little money from the cash register. It was here, she'd worked for it and got nothing!

She had a few minutes before the check-up. She walked fearfully toward the cash register, but it was too late. She heard Nick the nightman's voice. He came in a little ahead of time, and her foster-father with him.

Richardson went straight to the register and counted the money, as though he sensed her plan. Then he turned over the change for the night to Nick and left. But it did not matter now, not now, that she had found a friend who would help her.

Usually Sonny stayed to talk to Nick. He was devoted to her. But tonight she went directly to her own room. She had it all planned. It would be simple to get out of her window since the building was a one-story affair. She'd never come back. She'd kill herself first. If she starved, well, that would be a novelty. She'd always had enough to eat. Richardson had seen to that. Starving would be welcome, if she could starve in freedom.

The two boys were nice kids.

Climbing out of the window, Sonny ripped her skirt.

Sonny could see that; the nicest she'd ever seen in the lunchroom. It was too bad she had to use them. But her desperation made her ignore that. She couldn't consider their feelings in the matter. She wouldn't tell the boys she was running away, not until after she was well away from the hated place. Then there would be nothing they could do. She felt she could convince them. They were kind.

Sonny got out a couple of dresses and wrapped them with her toilet articles in a newspaper. It was the only thing available. She put on her best dress and her one pair of high-heeled shoes. When she was ready, she heard her father come across the living room and try her door. "I have something to say to you," he said through the filmy panel.

Her heart beat to suffocation, but she kept her voice steady. "I'm in bed. Let me sleep." He wouldn't break the door down with Nick present, she felt sure.

"You won't get off that easy. I'll see you in the morning," he said, still keeping his voice low. She held her breath, listening to his receding footsteps. His door closed.

Sonny did not wait a moment longer. Climbing out of the window, she heard a ripping sound. Her skirt! But nothing mattered now. She had set her course.

Then she was running in the dark, bending low, across the field next to the gas station, running breathlessly, terrified.

Suppose they were not waiting. What would she do? She had just 50 cents. But she plunged on now, no longer careful to be quiet. She could see the farmhouse looming up ahead. It cut off a view of the road so she could not see whether or not the boys were there.

Then at last she skirted the house. A dog barked excitedly as she crept along. In despair her eyes strained to see down the road. The car was there!

When she reached it she was sobbing hysterically. Tom was standing alongside, smoking a cigarette. "Poor kid," he sympathized, "get in."

Neither of the boys paid any attention to the bundle Sonny tossed in back of the seat. They were too excited over this adventure with the red-haired girl.
